Geotechnical/Environmental Engineering Intern
Manchester, NH

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The candidate will provide support for site characterization geotechnical investigations, site development, remediation, solid waste, and environmental compliance projects that involve field studies, report preparation, and interaction with coworkers. Responsibilities will include the following:

Responsibilities of the position include, but are not limited to:

- Interpreting, and presenting, environmental data; performing engineering calculations and cost estimates; preparing sections of technical reports including results of field operations, modeling results, bench and pilot scale treatment testing, and detailed drawings and specifications; coordinating and reviewing work by drafters; and, providing technical contributions to proposal efforts

POSITION REQUIREMENTS

- The candidate shall have good verbal and written communication skills combined with a positive attitude and the ability to work independently and within groups. In addition, strong computer skills including Word, Excel, and database software are preferred. Candidate shall be enrolled in a undergraduate or post-graduate Engineering, Geology or related field of study. OSHA 40-hour Hazwoper training desired but not required
- Qualified candidate must pass a physical examination and drug screen, as a condition of employment and have a valid driver’s license

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Local candidates are preferred

To be considered for this position, please submit an online application at www.golder.com/careers

Golder Associates is an Equal Opportunity Employer. M/F/D/V